For the 300th anniversary of the Burrowes Mansion (94 Main Street), the Matawan Historical Society is having a whole weekend of events- to include a professional reenactment of the raid at the mansion, cannon firings and weapons demonstrations along with a colonial troop encampment. Portions of Main Street will be closed on Saturday and tickets will be made available. Come see why the Burrowes Mansion has been preserved for 300 years and learn the history and story of Matawan.
